Wanstead By Tube (London Underground)

Wanstead is easily accessible from Central London. It is 15 minutes journey time from Bank Station on the Central Line. The Central Line branches at Leytonstone. You can remain on any train and get off at the first station after Leytonstone. Depending which branch you are on you will disembark at either Wanstead or Snaresbrook Underground Stations.

From Snaresbrook Station

Snaresbrook Station above ground and is the closest station to the office, being approximately 3 minutes' walk. To know you are going on the correct direction, go under the railway bridge and walk to a set of traffic lights. Cross over the traffic lights, going straight on. The office is a little way up on the left hand side.

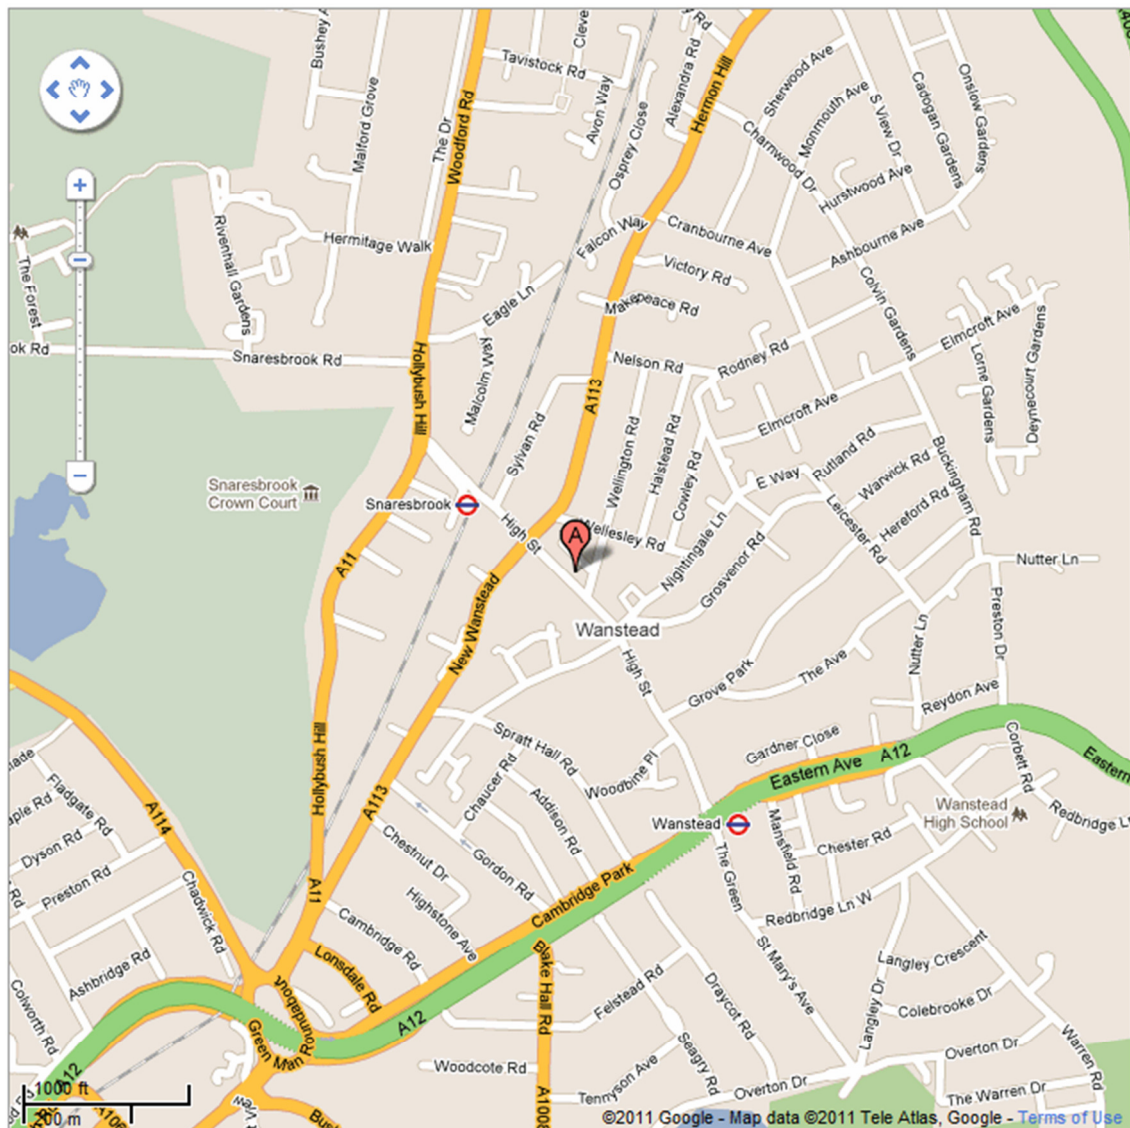

From Wanstead Station

Go above ground. You will want the exit that comes out opposite The George public house. Cross over the road and go past the George and a number of restaurants. Keep going past the Co-Op, past Tesco, past Barclays and Natwest Banks, past the Cuckfield Public House. Our office is a short walk from there on the right hand side, opposite the Memorial Gardens.

Wanstead Station is approximately 7 minutes walk from our office.

By Car

On road unrestricted parking spaces are available in the vicinity of the office but please ensure that you do not park in any of the restricted areas. For the avoidance of doubt, do not park on any roads where there are any yellow lines or yellow marks on the pavement. There are some peculiar restrictions in Wanstead and there are a number of vigilant traffic wardens. Many drivers are caught out and receive a hefty fine.

If you need assistance call us on 0845 652 0451.
